Flesh In The Age Of

Having been recommended this book by a professor of sociology, I had high hopes for Flesh in the Age of Reason, and I was not disappointed. Porter deftly handles multiple facets of philosophy around the time of the enlightenment, weaving together the ideas of well known theorists on the links between mind, soul, spirit and the body.

Flesh in the Age of Reason ebook by Roy Porter - Rakuten Kobo

This book examines the attitude towards the 'flesh' or the body from a historic perspective. Drawing on his medical knowledge, as well as his deep familiarity with the philosophical writers, Porter shows that the emergence of the scientific age resulted in the 'disappearance' of the 'soul' and the realization that flesh and soul, or spirit, are one.

That was the first earth age and we now are living in the second earth age. The first earth age as well as the third earth age are spiritual ages meaning we just have our spiritual bodies. It is only in this second earth age that we have flesh and spiritual bodies. Just so you know, I'm not talking about reincarnation.
